

GET INVOLVED in YOUR Community Health Service...

Become a Member!

- ✓ Learn more about health issues in the community
- ✓ Be involved in the development of services for your community

Inner South Community Health Service Ltd., (ISCHS) is a not for profit non-government organization, governed by a Board of Directors. The Board comprises up to 11 Directors who are members of ISCHS. As members of the community we value active client and community participation in service development and delivery.

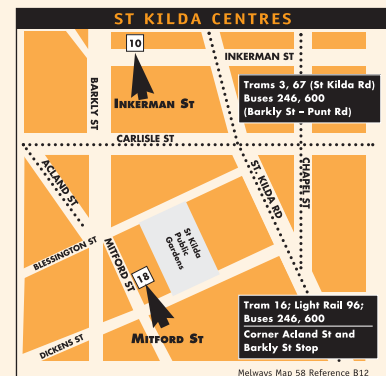

We are keen to encourage, support and provide avenues to enable our clients and members of the wider community to not only have a say in how our services are run but to have a real input in how we develop our services to make sure that we are meeting the needs of our community. Other opportunities for involvement at ISCHS if you do not choose to apply for membership include volunteering and participating on various consumer groups. If you are interested in these opportunities you can contact the Community Participation Officer on 9525 1300.
